

29th January 2010

Dear Parents

Parent meetings with teachers commence on Monday 8th February. Please contact your child's class teacher if you do not already have an appointment.

UNICEF/Haiti Appeals

Friday 5th February is our non-uniform day when children can dress in clothes of their own choice provided they pay at least 50p.

We will also have a cake sale so please send any cakes to school on Friday morning. The children should bring at least 50p to buy cakes.

Should every child donate £1 in total we will be able to divide £530 between the two appeals. Thanks in anticipation of your support.

Learning Walks

You may have noticed these on the diary dates. They are part of our school self-evaluation and involve me and our school adviser visiting all classrooms to check on the quality of learning and teaching. You will be please to know that we have seen a great deal of good work.

CCTV

The school now has a closed circuit TV camera trained on the front gate. This allows the office staff to see who is arriving before admitting them.

Book Fair

Advance notice that we will be holding a “Buy One – Get One Free” book fair from Monday 1st March to Thursday 4th March. Further details and a request for helpers will follow soon so keep you eyes peeled!

Priority Freight

Priority Freight has organised a convoy of vehicles carrying much needed Aid to some of the poorest remote villages south of the Atlas mountains in Africa. The Coventry office are trying to obtain as many second hand “working” bikes (No racers unfortunately due to the terrain) as possible as well as boxes of children’s clothing. If you can donate either of these then please contact Zara Harris – tel: 02476 714400/Email: zara.harris@priorityfreight.co.uk.
